Introduction

The speaker needs communication skills to convey the message to the listener. If the speaker does not have this skill, the speaker cannot convey the desired information. Human being is a social animal so communication is essential to him. The definition of communication includes the exchange of information through facial expressions, gestures and spoken language. Communication requires two people, one person speaking and one listening. Language is conveyed through the brain and it has positive and negative effects on the public mind.

- The skill of the speaker was used for many listener at a time.
- People are emotionally connected if they have communication skills.
- Communication skills are essential for success in business, lawyer, salesmens, lecturers.
- Students can get a certain position in the society after completing this course.
- It is beneficial for interview after competitive exam.
- It is definitely useful for students in journalism, translation media and in the field of art, drama, cinema, script writing etc.
